Thanks for Your Service, K9 Buck!

Over the past six years, SPD Sergeant Brandon Perry and his partner, K9 Officer Buck, have been dedicated to helping make Sevierville a safe community. This devotion has resulted in numerous successes in service to their fellow officers and the community. These efforts have resulted in dozens of seizures totaling $800,000 in value, multiple suspect apprehensions, and protected the lives of others on numerous occasions.

Sadly, it's time for Buck to retire. He will be missed by his fellow officers, community and Sgt. Perry and his family (pictured here). Over the next few weeks, Buck will transition from working full-time to retirement.

Police Department 2017 Employees of the Year

SPD Employee of the Year Stacia Carlsen stepped-up to the role of Dispatch Supervisor and in a few short months has made tremendous strides in improving the work environment for dispatchers, and improved relationships with the dispatch units in our partner agencies within Sevier County. Stacia personifies the terms professionalism and dedication, as well as being caring and concerned about others, and her daily efforts reflect great credit on herself, the Sevierville Police Department, the City of Sevierville, and the community we serve.

Employee of the Year Runner-up Justin Armstrong is a K9 officer, Field Training Officer and SPD's very first Drug Recognition Expert. Officer Armstrong's performance is evident in his daily activity and numerous arrests made for DUI and drug detection. Justin's tireless efforts, dedication, and initiative reflect great credit on himself, the Sevierville Police Department, the City of Sevierville, and the community we serve.
